Pope John Paul Two Awards

At last Thursday's meeting fifteen teens heard the Diocesan Youth rep. Explore the many roles which young participants can take up, either in the community or in the church, in order to win one of several awards. She mentioned the many benefits for individual self-esteem and morale in the community which have been seen in other parishes which run the awards. All fifteen received enrolment forms and are asked to complete and return them to Michael Lee, Patricia Mc Govern or Sharon Maguire by Sun. 19th

Little things change the world (from The Tablet)

A Catholic school designates a week every year to encouraging small acts of kindness on the part of students and teachers. The benign ripple effect of these acts extends throughout the school and beyond small acts can have a big impact – and can create a kinder world. Imagine what it would be like if everyone thought of little ways of bringing a bit of light into other people's lives. Imagine if a whole school community did this – and the parents, the parish and wider community. This was the impulse that drove St Mary's Catholic Academy in Blackpool to pilot an Acts of Kindness (AOK) week. The idea was the brainchild of Teresa Onions, director of Pastoral Care UK, and has its precursors in the Random Acts of Kindness movement. The aim was to facilitate an experience for the whole school system, and for pupils' families, of an environment of heightened kindness for a window of time. It was hoped that by raising people's consciousness of how good it feels to give and receive kindness, a ripple effect would be created, which would spread outside the school environment.

At the heart of this initiative is Christ's command: "Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another" (John 13:34). And perhaps also the "Little Way" of St Thérèse of Lisieux, who showed how the ordinary tasks of life, performed with love, can be holy. We hoped that being kind and receiving consideration from others would boost pupils' self-esteem, and enhance relationships, in school and family life, which are so crucial to emotional well-being and resilience.

St Mary's devoted time during staff meetings, RE classes, assemblies and morning worship to communicate the core principles.

Diocesan Gathering of Participants in Theology Courses - Over the last number of years many people in the diocese have participated in theology courses offered through the Diocesan Pastoral Centre and other institutions. The Pastoral Centre courses include the Mater Dei Certificate in Theology and the Maryvale Catechism Course as well as short courses conducted by Fr. Eamonn Bredin. If you have participated in such courses and are interested in putting your skills to use in a voluntary capacity in the diocese, we would be interested in hearing from you. Please phone or email to express your interest and, based on the response, a gathering will be organised in the coming months to reflect on possibilities. Contact Rev. Ultan McGoohan, Diocesan Director of Pastoral Services, on 049-4375004

Fundraiser Walk and Talk for Syria, March 18th, 11.00am-1.30pm. Meet at Rainbow Ballroom, Glenfarne. Short walk in the forest. Talk with Rola, an Irish Syrian. Refreshments and music by local Comhaltas members. 100% of donations on the day go to MSF Emergency Appeal for Syria. This event is organised by Glenfarne Community Development Group.
