Prayer for Victims of Sexual Abuse by members of the Church

Following the request of Pope Francis to the Irish bishops to hold a day of prayer for people who have been abused by members of the Church, we in the Diocese of Kilmore are organizing a prayer service dedicated to those who have been abused and their families.

The prayer service will take place on Good Friday, 14th April in the Cathedral of St Patrick and St Felim, Cavan. It will take the form of 'Prayer Around the Cross', from 9pm to 10pm. This prayer is for those abused by members of the Church but all are welcome and we encourage everyone to attend to show support and solidarity.

Each parish will be asked to send representatives.

Pope expected to attend global meeting of families next year in 'Ireland that has changed dramatically'

Pope Francis is expected to attend next year's global meeting of families in Dublin, an event that aims to "embrace" those who have failed to live up to the Church's teaching.

Cardinal Kevin Farrell, who runs the Holy See's family life department, said the Argentinian pontiff was aiming to make an appearance at the Dublin gathering which is taking place on 21-26 August 2018.

"I would put my money on the fact that if the Pope is able to be there, and circumstances around the world permit him to be able to go there, then I'm sure he will do everything he possibly can to be there," the 69-year-old prelate explained at a Vatican press conference today.

A letter from Pope Francis released today said the gathering will focus on his family life teaching "Amoris Laetitia" with special attention on the themes of joy and mercy.

Also present at the press conference today was the Archbishop of Dublin, Diarmuid Martin, who stressed the importance of understating the "day-to-day" pressures facing families today.

St. Michael's Bookshop Enniskillen (across the street from the church), has a fine display of First Communion and Confirmation gifts. 048-66324771
