

KILLINAGH & GLANGEVLIN

Oct. 15th 2017

Priest: Charlie O’Gorman – 071 9853012 / 087 4182324

Email: blacklion@kilmorediocese.ie

Next Sunday Oct. 22nd is Mission Sunday. Please support the worldwide Mission for the developing world by donating through the pink envelope in your pack. Thank you.

It is the one Sunday in the year when your generosity goes directly to help mission parishes overseas and reach out with Jesus’ message of hope and love. In offering our prayers, we join with missionaries everywhere in communion and compassion to support them in spreading the Good News, and by giving a donation we respond to Christ’s call to feed the hungry and clothe the naked.

MUSINGS

Priests will continue to minister to ‘occasional Catholics,’ or the ‘semi-attached.’ This is sometimes a source of frustration for priests. In part, this is because there does not seem to be any coherent strategy, not only at a national level but even within dioceses, for instance, with regard to admitting children who are from non-practising families to the sacraments of initiation and providing for sacramental marriage. In other countries people are quick to register formally ‘in’ or ‘out’ of the Church. In Ireland, we tend to be pragmatic rather than to take principled stances, and so it is likely that many people will drift in and out of the Church. The challenge here is to get the balance right between providing pastoral care sensitively, on the one hand, and inviting people into fuller communion and conversion, on the other.

in Priesthood Today: Ministry in a Changing Church

"God does not give us everything we want, but He does fulfill His promises, leading us along the best and straightest paths to Himself." –Dietrich Bonhoeffer

"Our greatest fear should not be of failure but of succeeding at things in life that don't really matter." –Francis Chan

"We gain strength, and courage, and confidence by each experience in which we really stop to look fear in the face...we must do that which we think we cannot." – Eleanor Roosevelt

Confessor: I have stolen a fat goose from a poultry yard!

Priest: That is very wrong.

Confessor: Would you like to accept it, Father?

Priest: Certainly not- return it to the man whom you stole it from.

Confessor: But I have offered it to him and he won't have it.

Priest: In that case you may keep it yourself.

Confessor: Thank you, Father.
The Priest arrived home to find one of his geese had been stolen...
