Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet dog for company. One day the dog died, and Muldoon went to the parish priest and asked, "Father, me dog is dead. Could ya' be saying' a mass for the poor creature?"

Father Patrick replied, "I'm afraid not; we cannot have services for an animal in the church. But there are some Baptists down the lane, and there's no tellin' what they believe. Maybe they'll do something for the creature."

Muldoon said, "I'll go right away Father. Do ya' think €5,000 is enough to donate to them for the service?"

Father Patrick exclaimed, "Merciful hour! Why did ya' not tell me the dog was Catholic? Sure I'll do it."

Some points from Second Look Pro-Life Support Group, to the Oireachtas committee on the 8th Amendment.....

The deliberate killing of unborn babies because they are disabled or unwanted is totally unjust and inhuman no matter how many nations allow it. In the past there was an almost universal consensus on the legitimacy of slavery.

Up to about 50 years ago, abortion was almost universally condemned. Now the annual extermination of living human beings far surpasses all the Nazi atrocities. Perhaps in a time not too far distant, this age we live in will be generally regarded with shame, disgust and deep regret.

The current abortion moves are well-funded, and inspired, by the foreign population control lobby. Untold millions seem to have been given to various Irish pro-abortion groups. And, it is not beyond the bounds of possibility that some Irish politicians may also have benefited from their largesse.

As you may know, there were three Backpack Summer Camps in the Kilmore Diocese across three locations: Cavan, Ballinamore, and Manorhamilton. These camps were a great success and we have begun weekly parish groups in these areas.

The parish group in Manorhamilton is on Monday, 6th November at 5:30pm-7:00pm in The Beepark community centre and every Monday until Christmas. It is open to all young people 12-18 years of age.

If you know any teens who would be interested in attending, please call 083 487 7325 for further details.
