The much needed change

John calls the people to repentance (i.e. a change of heart), as a way to a new life. Can you recall times when you had a change of heart, and the change led to new life for you?

John baptised people with water as a gesture to mark their change of heart. Sometimes we perform an action to symbolise our change of heart – write a letter, make a phonecall, throw away the bottle, throw away our last cigarettes, etc. Can you remember a symbolic gesture with which you marked a change of heart?

Towards Peace

Christmas and New Year is often a time when we are reminded of our deeper selves and deepest hopes, and deepest pain. The vision of Towards Peace is to provide a safe supportive space for people who have been affected by abuse in a Church. If you have been abused and would like a space to reflect on the impact of the trauma of abuse on your own relationship with God and spirituality, Towards Peace is here for you:

Rudolph and Olive

One Christmas, a mother asked her young daughter if she could name two of Santa's reindeer.

"Rudolph and Olive," replied the young girl confidently.

"Rudolph and Olive?" said the mother, quizzically. "Are you sure?"

"Yes, mammy, Rudolph and Olive. Like in the song."

"The song?" asked the mother. "What song?"

The girl sang, "Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer, had a very shiny nose. And if you ever saw it, you would even say it glows. Olive the other reindeer...."

Rudolph the Russian

One Christmas eve, Pete and Jane were driving their Russian friend Rudolph back to his house. The weather outside was frightful. Jane asked Pete, "Do you think that's sleet or rain out there?"

"It's rain, Jane" said Pete. "I think it's sleet, Pete," said Jane. Rudolph chimed in, "It's definitely rain, Jane." "Don't argue with the expert, Jane," said Pete. "What do you mean, Pete?" asked Jane.

Pete replied, "Rudolph the Red knows rain, Dear."
