Joy of Love: Pope Francis has asked us to reflect on family life as we experience it today as we prepare for the World Meeting of Families. He has written about the importance of the family in a letter entitled, The Joy of Love. Volunteers are needed to help facilitate a one day programme of reflection on family life that will be held in three different locations in Kilmore diocese during Lent.

If you would like to learn more please come without commitment to an information evening at the Diocesan Pastoral Centre Cavan on Wednesday 7 February 2018 at 7pm and in St Clare's School Manorhamilton on Thursday 8 February at 7pm. You will be most welcome.

The Irish Cancer Society operates a free transport service for patients attending hospital for chemotherapy treatment. Volunteer Drivers pick the patient up at the door of their home, drop them at the hospital door, then when finished treatment, will pick them up and drop them home. Volunteer expenses are paid. Patients wishing to avail of this free service should contact their healthcare professional, visit the Society's website at irishcancer.ie or contact the Irish Cancer Society for more information on 01 2310 522.

THE DEEP END: Genuine authority

'But man, proud man,
Dress'd in a little brief authority,
Most ignorant of what he's most assur'd.....' William Shakespeare

We probably wouldn't have to look too hard for examples of public figures who seem to fit the above description. Puffed up with a sense of their own importance, they are anxious to be seen as the expert on a given subject, in spite of their limited knowledge or experience. We criticise politicians if we feel they are blind to the struggles of ordinary people. They don't know what it's like, for example, to live on a minimum wage, or to be at risk of homelessness. On the other hand, it is refreshing when those in power have faced some of these issues themselves, or have made the effort to do their research and to listen to people. We can tell when someone is speaking with genuine authority and care.

Those who listen to Jesus teaching in the synagogue know there is something different and exciting about him. His teaching is in sharp contrast to the scribes they are used to hearing. The difference, stated twice in this passage, is his authority, and it leaves his audience 'astonished'. He does not use it the way we might tend to use our 'little brief authority', to make ourselves look good. Instead he uses his authority to serve, to love, and to bring mercy and freedom.

"Crisis of Democracy in Ireland Tour" - Thursday 15 February 7pm Riverfront Hotel , Virginia.

John Waters and Fr. Marcel Guarnizo will address the nature of democracy, the illegality of voting away fundamental human rights and how to uphold constitutional protections of innocent human life.

The fight to protect the 8th amendment has been ongoing, and it is an uphill battle to withstand the efforts of a partisan press and various other interests who seem determined to facilitate the provision of abortion in Ireland.
