Repealing the 8th will undermine everyone's right to life Bishop Doran, Sligo

Acceptance of abortion now will pave the way for other attacks on human life in the future, the bishop cautioned. "If society accepts that one human being has the right to end the life of another, then it is no longer possible to claim the right to life as a fundamental human right for anybody. A number of EU member states have already legalised euthanasia. I am convinced that if we concede any ground on abortion, the very same arguments which are now being used to justify abortion will be used to justify ending the lives of frail elderly people and people with significant disability. This is the final frontier. If we cross it, there will be no easy way back."

Saving the 8th

There will be a very important public meeting in the Bush Hotel Carrick-on-Shannon on Monday Feb 5th at 8.30 pm regarding the 8th amendment. Speakers on the night will be Niamh Ui Bhriain Life Institute, Bernie Smyth Precious Life and Dr. Judy Ceannt, granddaughter of Eamonn Ceannt, one of the 1916 signatories. This is a great opportunity to inform yourself of the devastating consequences of the proposed changes.

MUSINGS

In speaking about the merciful outreach of the Church, in his first official interview with the Jesuit Antonio Spadaro, Pope Francis compared the Church to a field hospital: 'I see the church as a field hospital after battle... the thing the church needs most today is the ability to heal wounds and to warm the hearts of the faithful; it needs nearness, proximity.' Using simple but effective imagery, he brings home his point that before getting into details about the dos and don'ts of the Christian life, it's important to make sure we are conveying the central message and reality: 'it is useless to ask a seriously injured person if he has high cholesterol and about the level of his blood sugars! You have to heal his wounds. Then we can talk about everything else. Heal the wounds ... And you have to start from the ground up.'
